CME CERTIFICATE REQUEST

“NeuroRheumatology”

OCTOBER 31 – NOVEMBER 3, 2024

Completing the evaluation form is required in order to receive CME Credit. Please provide as much feedback as possible. CME Consultants will email CME certificates of attendance to all participants who submit an evaluation form.

DESIRED OUTCOMES – After attending this activity, do you feel you are better able to:		YES	NO	N/A
1.	Identify new and key concepts involved in the interface between neurology and rheumatic diseases with historical input where applicable as with Jean Martin Charcot (the father modern neurology) and a neuroreumatologist.
2.	Discussing cutting-edge, new guidelines in the evaluation of peripheral nervous system involvement in Sjogren’s Disease in regard to clinical recognition, evaluation, treatment and evidence to support these guidelines.
3.	Discuss and integrate recognition, age and gender-related demographics, new advances and treatment in the clinical management of neurological presentations in SLE (mostly females), Sjogren’s Disease (mostly females), Multiple Sclerosis (females >males), Myositis, Autoimmune Neuropathies, Lyme Disease, Sarcoidosis, IgG 4 Systemic-Related Disease, Autoimmune Encephalitis in adults and children, Autoimmune Pernicious Anemia (frequently in the elderly), Neurovasculitis, Fibromyalgia (more in females) and other Chronic CNS Pain Disorders.
4.	Apply updated methods in the diagnosis and treatment of Multiple Sclerosis, NMOSD And GAD Spectrum Disorders with rheumatological overlay where applicable.
5.	Illustrate the importance of Jean Martin Charcot (the father of modern neurology) in his recognition of the important overlap between rheumatology and neurology, being the first neuroreumatologist in the modern medicine, rheumatology and neurology.
6.	Discuss updates on current legislative issues affecting neurologists and apply to their medical practice.
